

Cindy (Eskuri) Cook, Michigan

Cindy Cook has been training horses professionally for over 20 years. She owns and operates a 50 acre farm in Southeast Michigan, with a strong background in eventing and jumping horses. Cindy has now turned her focus to the much sought after Friesian breed. She is president of the South Eastern Michigan Friesian Horse Association (SEMFHA) which is a new chapter of the national organization of the Friesian Horse Association of North America (FHANA).

She has been entertaining crowds for the last five years. Cindy has been involved with the renowned, "Lighted Friesian Shows" as well. She has recently performed at the Virginia Equine Extravaganza and the Ohio Equine Affair. Most recently, Cindy rode a musical kur to the "Nut Cracker" ballet at Windrush Farm in Metamora, Michigan.

During the Saturday evening performance, enjoy her musical kur on her GORGEOUS Friesian Thys W. Cindy will be riding to selections of the "Phantom of the Opera". Come see them perform at the Michigan Stallion Expo!
